Passport renewal for persons under the age of 16 requires both parents' signature and presence if both names are listed on the child's birth certificate or CRBA. If one or both parents is absent, then each parent will need to provide the applying parent or guardian with a notarized DS-3053/consent form; available online with a copy of their valid picture ID used when the document was notarized. A letter granting a guardian permission to apply for a passport for a minor is also required in cases where both parents submit a consent form. Consent form is valid for 90 days. In some instances, persons must submit court documents to prove legal or full custody of a minor for a US passport to be issued to a minor.

All minors must be present for the appointment. Parents accompanying the minor must bring their valid government issued ID. Parents are also asked to walk with photos of the child's development especially if the photo in the current passport was taken as a baby.

Applicants ages 16 & 17 requires one parent or guardian signature.
